NOTE: Senator Sam Nunn, of Georgia, was a member of the Senate Armed Services Committee from January 4, 1973 until his resignation from the United States Senate January 3, 1997. Senator Nunn served as Chairman of the Committee from the 100th through the 103rd Congress.

The Senate Committees on Military Affairs; on the Militia; and Naval Affairs were established on December 10, 1816. The Committee on the Militia was merged with the Committee on Military Affairs in 1858 to form the Military Affairs and Militia Committee. However, in 1872 the Committee dropped "Militia" from its name. The Military Affairs and Naval Affairs Committees existed until 1947 when they were combined by the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946 into a new standing committee, the current Armed Services Committee.

RELATIONSHIP OF ANNUAL AUTHORIZATION TO DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE APPROPRIATIONS

History of Section 114, Title 10, United States Code

The jurisdiction of the committee so far as specific annual authorizations are concerned was increased significantly in 1959 by the enactment of section 412(b) of Public Law 86-149 which required annual congressional authorization of appropriations for the procurement of aircraft, missiles and naval vessels. That law was amended and expanded as follows:

In 1962 (Public Law 88-436) to require similar authorization of appropriations for research, development, test, or evaluation associated with aircraft, missiles and naval vessels;

In 1963 (Public Law 88-174) to require similar authorization of appropriations for all research, development, test, or evaluation carried on by the Department of Defense;

In 1965 (Public Law 89-37) to require authorization of appropriations for the procurement of tracked combat vehicles;

In 1967 (Public Law 90-168) to require annual authorization of the personnel strengths of each of the Selected Reserves of the Reserve components as a prior condition for the appropriation of funds for the pay and allowances for the Reserve components;

In 1969 (Public Law 91-121) to require authorization of appropriations for the procurement of other weapons to or for the use of any armed force of the United States. (Essentially, heavy, medium, and light artillery, anti-aircraft artillery, rifles, machine-guns, mortars, small arms weapons, and any crew-fired piece using fixed ammunition);

In 1970 (Public Law 91-441) to require authorization of appropriations to or for the use of the Navy for the procurement of torpedoes and related support equipment; and to require authorization of the average annual active duty personnel strength for each component of the Armed Forces as a condition precedent to the appropriation of funds for this purpose;

In 1971 (Public Law 92-436) to require annual authorization for the average military training student loads for each component of the Armed Forces, and modified the provision relating to authorization for active duty personnel strength;

In 1973 (Public Law 93-155) to require authorization for end strength civilian employment for each component of the Defense Department in each fiscal year;

In 1975 (Public Law 94-106) to require the annual authorization of military construction of ammunition facilities;

In 1980 (Public Law 96-342) to require the annual authorization of appropriations of funds for the operation and maintenance of any armed force of the activities and agencies of the Department of Defense (other than the military departments) for fiscal years beginning after September 30, 1981; and

In 1982 (Public Law 97–86) to require the annual authorization of appropriations of funds for procurement of ammunition or other procurement for any armed force or for agencies of the Department of Defense (other than military departments).

Also, in 1973 these enactments were codified by section 803(a) of Public Law 93–155 into Title 10, United States Code, as section 138. Section 138 was amended on several occasions and has been redesignated as section 114 of Title 10, United States Code. The law today reads as follows:

§ 114. Annual authorization of appropriations

(a) No funds may be appropriated for any fiscal year to or for the use of any armed force or obligated or expended for—

- (1) procurement of aircraft, missiles, or naval vessels;
- (2) any research, development, test, or evaluation, or procurement or production related thereto;
- (3) procurement of tracked combat vehicles;
- (4) procurement of other weapons;
- (5) procurement of naval torpedoes and related support equipment;
- (6) military construction;
- (7) the operation and maintenance of any armed force or of the activities and agencies of the Department of Defense (other than the military departments);
- (8) procurement of ammunition; or
- (9) other procurement by any armed force or by the activities and agencies of the Department of Defense (other than the military departments); unless funds therefor have been specifically authorized by law.

(b) In subsection (a) (6), the term “military construction” includes any construction, development, conversion, or extension of any kind which is carried out with respect to any military facility or installation (including any Government-owned or Government-leased industrial facility used for the production of defense articles and any facility to which section 2353 of this title applies), any activity to which section 2807 of this title applies, any activity to which chapter 1803 of this title applies, and advances to the Secretary of Transportation for the construction of defense access roads under section 210 of title 23. Such term does not include any activity to which section 2821 or 2854 of this title applies.

(c)(1) The size of the Special Defense Acquisition Fund established pursuant to chapter 5 of the Arms Export Control Act (22 U.S.C. 2795 et seq.) may not exceed $1,070,000,000.

(2) Notwithstanding section 37(a) of the Arms Export Control Act (22 U.S.C. 2777(a)), amounts received by the United States pursuant to subparagraph (A) of section 21(a) (1) of that Act (22 U.S.C. 2761(a) (1))—

(A) shall be credited to the Special Defense Acquisition Fund established pursuant to chapter 5 of that Act (22 U.S.C. 2795(b) (1)), but subject to the limitation in paragraph (1) and other applicable law, and

(B) to the extent not so credited, shall be deposited in the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts as provided in section 3302(b) of title 31.

(d) Funds may be appropriated for the armed forces for use as an emergency fund for research, development, test, and evaluation, or related procurement or production only if the appropriation of the funds is authorized by law after June 30, 1966.

(e) In each budget submitted by the President to Congress under section 1105 of title 31, amounts requested for procurement of equipment for the reserve components of the armed forces (including the National Guard) shall be set forth separately from other amounts requested for procurement for the armed forces.

(f) In each budget submitted by the President to Congress under section 1105 of title 31, amounts requested for procurement of ammunition for the Navy and Marine Corps, and for procurement of ammunition for the Air Force, shall be set forth separately from other amounts requested for procurement.

§ 115. Personnel strengths: requirement for annual authorization

(a) Congress shall authorize personnel strength levels for each fiscal year for each of the following:

(1) The end strength for each of the armed forces (other than the Coast Guard) for (A) active-duty personnel who are to be paid from funds appropriated for active-duty personnel, and (B) active-duty personnel and full-time National Guard duty personnel who are to be paid from funds appropriated for reserve personnel.

(2) The end strength for the Selected Reserve of each reserve component of the armed forces.

(b) No funds may be appropriated for any fiscal year to or for—

(1) the use of active-duty personnel or full-time National Guard duty personnel of any of the armed forces (other than the Coast Guard) unless the end strength for such personnel of that armed force for that fiscal year has been authorized by law; or

(2) the use of the Selected Reserve of any reserve component of the armed forces unless the end strength for the Selected Reserve of that component for that fiscal year has been authorized by law.

(c) Upon determination by the Secretary of Defense that such action is in the national interest, the Secretary may—

(1) increase the end strength authorized pursuant to subsection (a) (1) (A) for a fiscal year for any of the armed forces by a number equal to not more than 1 percent of that end strength; and

(2) increase the end strength authorized pursuant to subsection (a) (1) (B) for a fiscal year for any of the armed forces by a number equal to not more than 2 percent of that end strength.

(d) In counting active-duty personnel for the purpose of the end-strengths authorized pursuant to subsection (a) (1), persons in the following categories shall be excluded:

(2) Members of the Selected Reserve of the Ready Reserve ordered to active duty under section 12304 of this title.

(3) Members of the National Guard called into Federal service under section 12406 of this title.

(4) Members of the militia called into Federal service under chapter 15 of this title.

(6) Members of reserve components on active duty for 180 days or less to perform special work.

(7) Members on full-time National Guard duty for 180 days or less.

(8) Members of the Selected Reserve of the Ready Reserve on active duty for more than 180 days to support programs described in section 1203(b) of the Cooperative Threat Reduction Act of 1993 (title XII of Public Law 103–160; 22 U.S.C. 5952(b)).

(e) The authorized strength of the Navy under subsection (a) (1) is increased by the authorized strength of the Coast Guard during any period when the Coast Guard is operating as a service in the Navy.

[(f) Repealed. P.L. 104–106 1061 (c) (3), Feb. 10, 1996, 110 Stat. 442.]

(g) Congress shall authorize for each fiscal year the end strength for military technicians (dual status) for each reserve component of the Army and Air Force. Funds available to the Department of Defense for any fiscal year may not be used for the pay of a military technician (dual status) during that fiscal year unless the technician fills a position that is within the number of such positions authorized by law for that fiscal year for the reserve component of that technician. This subsection applies without regard to section 129 of this title.

ACTIVITIES OF THE COMMITTEE ON ARMED SERVICES DURING THE 105TH CONGRESS (1997 AND 1998)

The following summarizes the activities of the Committee on Armed Services during the 105th Congress.

National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1998

The Committee initiated the fiscal year 1998 budget deliberations on February 6, 1997, with a hearing to receive testimony from intelligence experts on the global threats facing the United States. This hearing set the stage for the annual Posture Hearing on February 12 during which the newly confirmed Secretary of Defense, William S. Cohen, and the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, General John M. Shalikashvili, USA presented the administration's $265.3 billion defense budget request.

Prior to the markup of the fiscal year 1998 defense authorization bill, the Committee and the six subcommittees received testimony from 152 witnesses during 32 hearings. The hearings focused on the details of the budget request and on a set of national security priorities established by Chairman Thurmond to guide the Committee through the authorization process for fiscal year 1998. In addition to key civilian and military leaders, the Committee and the subcommittees called witnesses from a broad range of experiences and perspectives to obtain a sense of the status of our armed forces and the concerns and needs of our men and women serving in uniform who preserve the Nation's security.

The Committee worked to achieve an appropriate balance between near-term and long-term readiness through investments in modernization, infrastructure and research; maintenance; operations and training; and sufficient personnel end-strengths at all grade levels, along with policies supporting the recruitment and retention of high quality personnel. Modernization efforts were focused on fielding the types and quantities of weapons systems and equipment needed to fight and win decisively with minimal risk to our troops to ensure an adequate, safe and reliable nuclear weapons capability.

The Committee's authorization recommendation for fiscal year 1998 was $268.2 billion, $5.2 billion over the amount requested by the Administration. The increase provided an additional $4.2 billion for procurement and $1.0 billion for research and development. The Committee took actions to improve operations and achieve greater efficiencies and savings. The Committee sought to eliminate defense spending that did not contribute directly to the national security of the United States. Additionally, savings were achieved by accelerating programs where appropriate and by limiting new program starts.

The Committee sought to improve the quality of life of our military personnel and their families. Quality of life initiatives included provisions to provide equitable pay and benefits to military personnel, including a 2.8 percent pay raise to protect against inflation, and to restore appropriate levels of funding for the construction and maintenance of troop billets and military family housing.

The Committee increased investment in the broad spectrum of research and development activities to ensure United States military forces remain superior in technology to any potential adversary. The Committee also directed a more detailed programming and budgeting process for the reserve components. The Department of Defense continues to rely heavily on the forces that make up our reserve component, but has failed to provide the necessary resources to ensure their effectiveness.

Finally, the Committee included provisions in the authorization bill to accelerate the development and deployment of theater missile defense systems and to provide adequate funding for a national missile defense system to preserve the option to deploy such a system in fiscal year 2003.

The Committee began its markup of the authorization bill on June 11, 1997, and reported S. 936 to the Senate on June 18, 1997. The Senate began consideration of S. 936 on June 19, and approved the bill on July 11, by a vote of 94 to 4. During the Senate's 44 hours of debate on the bill, 120 amendments were offered and 14 roll call votes were recorded.

The House of Representatives approved the bill proposed by the Committee on National Security (H.R. 1119) on June 25. On July 24, Conferees from the Senate and the House began the process of reconciling the many differences between the two bills. The conferees completed their work and filed the conference report in the House on October 23. The House passed the report on October 28, and the Senate passed the report on November 6 by a vote of 90 to 10. The President signed the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1998 into law on November 18, 1997 (Public Law 105-85).

National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1999

In the Second Session of the 105th Congress, the Committee continued its efforts to ensure, within the constraints of the new balanced budget agreement, an adequate balance between the current and long-term readiness of the armed forces.

The Committee began its review of the President's defense budget request for fiscal year 1999 at a hearing on February 3, 1998, when Secretary of Defense Cohen, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, General Henry H. Shelton, USA, and William J. Lynn III, Under Secretary of Defense (Comptroller) testified on the budget request of $270.9 billion in budget authority. While developing the National Defense Authorization Bill, the Committee and subcommittees heard from 156 witnesses who testified at 30 hearings.

The Committee commenced its markup on May 6 and reported to the Senate S. 2057, the National Defense Authorization Bill for Fiscal Year 1999 on May 11. The bill as reported would authorize $270.6 billion in budget authority for the National Defense function of the Federal Budget. To meet the guidelines of the fiscal year 1999 Budget Resolution, the funding level was approximately $300 million less than the Administration's request.

As reported by the Committee to the Senate, S. 2057 protected the quality of life of our military personnel and their families. Quality of life initiatives included provisions to provide a 3.1 percent pay increase and to restore appropriate levels of funding for the construction and maintenance of troop billets and military family housing.

The Committee noted clear evidence that the combat readiness of the Armed Forces was at greater risk due to two key factors: older and harder-to-maintain equipment resulting from inadequate modernization and the overuse of a smaller force structure. In that regard, the Committee supported a more robust, progressive modernization effort to provide the requisite capabilities for future military operations and to lower future operational and maintenance costs.

The Senate began consideration of S. 2057 on May 13, 1998, and approved the bill on June 25 by a vote of 88 to 4. At the conclusion of the debate, the Senate approved by voice vote an amendment offered by Senator Warner to name the bill the "Strom Thurmond National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1999." During the Senate's 45 hours of debate on the bill 150 amendments were offered and 14 roll call votes were recorded.

The House of Representatives approved the bill (H.R. 3616) proposed by the Committee on National Security on May 21. On July 14, the Conferees from the Senate and House began the process of reconciling the multitude of differences between the two bills. On September 22, 1998, the conferees completed their work, and the conference report was filed in the House. The House and Senate passed the conference report on September 24 and October 1 respectively, and President Clinton signed the bill into law on October 17, 1998 (Public Law 105-261).

(b) Hearings may be initiated only by the specified authorization of the committee or subcommittee.

(c) Hearings shall be held only in the District of Columbia unless specifically authorized to be held elsewhere by a majority vote of the committee or subcommittee conducting such hearings.

(d) Witnesses appearing before the committee shall file with the clerk of the committee a written statement of their proposed testimony prior to the hearing at which they are to appear unless the chairman and the ranking minority member determine that there is good cause not to file such a statement. Witnesses testifying on behalf of the Administration shall furnish an additional 50 copies of their statement to the Committee. All statements must be received by the Committee at least 48 hours (not including weekends or holidays) before the hearing.

(e) Confidential testimony taken or confidential material presented in a closed hearing of the committee or subcommittee or any report of the proceedings of such hearing shall not be made public in whole or in part or by way of summary unless authorized by a majority vote of the committee or subcommittee.

(f) Any witness summoned to give testimony or evidence at a public or closed hearing of the committee or subcommittee may be accompanied by counsel of his own choosing who shall be permitted at all times during such hearing to advise such witness of his legal rights.

(g) Witnesses providing unsworn testimony to the committee may be given a transcript of such testimony for the purpose of making minor grammatical corrections. Such witnesses will not, however, be permitted to alter the substance of their testimony. Any question involving such corrections shall be decided by the chairman.

11. Nominations. Unless otherwise ordered by the committee, nominations referred to the committee shall be held for at least seven (7) days before being voted on by the committee. Each member of the committee shall be furnished a copy of all nominations referred to the committee.

12. Real Property Transactions. Each member of the committee shall be furnished with a copy of the proposals of the Secretaries of the Army, Navy, and Air Force, submitted pursuant to 10 U.S.C. 2662 and with a copy of the proposals of the Director of the Federal Emergency Management Agency, submitted pursuant to 50 U.S.C. App. 2285, regarding the proposed acquisition or disposition of property of an estimated price or rental of more than $50,000. Any member of the committee objecting to or requesting information on a proposed acquisition or disposal shall communicate his objection or request to the chairman of the committee within thirty (30) days from the date of submission.

13. Legislative Calendar. (a) The clerk of the committee shall keep a printed calendar for the information of each committee member showing the bills introduced and referred to the committee and the status of such bills. Such calendar shall be revised from time to time to show pertinent changes in such bills, the current status thereof, and new bills introduced and referred to the committee. A copy of each new revision shall be furnished to each member of the committee.

(b) Unless otherwise ordered, measures referred to the committee shall be referred by the clerk of the committee to the appropriate department or agency of the Government for reports thereon.

14. Except as otherwise specified herein, the Standing Rules of the Senate shall govern the actions of the committee. Each subcommittee of the committee is part of the committee, and is therefore subject to the committee's rules so far as applicable.

15. Powers and Duties of Subcommittees. Each subcommittee is authorized to meet, hold hearings, receive evidence, and report to the full committee on all matters referred to it. Subcommittee chairmen shall set dates for hearings and meetings of their respective subcommittees after consultation with the chairman and other subcommittee chairmen with a view toward avoiding simultaneous scheduling of full committee and subcommittee meetings or hearings whenever possible.
